

Yashlee Nazi

Secretary, Regional Senator
Modesto Junior College/Region V

Yashlee Nazi is a dedicated and driven multilingual biology student with a passion for people. She lives in the heart of the Central Valley and is a second year student at Modesto Junior College.

Yashlee's involvement in student government began early in her life. Throughout high school she interned for the American Cancer Society and Doctors Medical Center. She became very passionate about medical and healthcare advocacy and it is her belief that if we are able to care for ourselves it is our duty to help others.

Upon graduating high school, she immediately began at Modesto Junior College and quickly became involved in the campus' political development. Yashlee's attendance at the Fall 2008 SSSCC General Assembly in San Jose was an eye-opening experience of the beauty and value of the CCC system in its representation of all lifestyles, nations, and ages. Everyone was there for the common purpose of ensuring the affordability and accessibility of higher education. She was determined to run for regional senator at the spring 2009 General Assembly.

Yashlee believes that much of the SSSCC's success depends on local senates. She serves on the Relations with Local Senates Committee in the effort of getting more CCC campuses involved and being a part of the state's shared governance process in voicing us all as a united 2.8 million students!

Yashlee hopes to transfer to the University of California and receive her Bachelors of Science in the biological sciences and then hopes to attend medical school to then complete her specialty in pediatric oncology. She commits to being a lifelong educational and medical advocate!
