Letter From the Communications Officer

---

Esteemed Region IV,

As the next board term is approaching, it is time to say farewell and let the future regional officers take over, it was an immense honor being part of the Region IV's executive board but now it is time to experience new leadership; with our new RAD Vivek Sharma, our LAD Maria, Vice Chair Goodhue, our Coms Officer George Little, and our Treasurer. Together, we will create a sanctuary in Region IV, we will effectively address students' needs, and advocate for academic excellence. I am genuinely confident that the next team of officers will make a meaningful impact in our communities by using wisdom and leadership. It is time for us to go. We appreciate all the support we received from endless people and want to express our sincere gratitude for serving as a Region IV officer.

5 De Mayo at Hartnell College

On May 5th, there is a tradition that many people in the United States Celebrate: the Battle of Puebla, a conflict between Mexico and France, with Mexico taking the victory. Besides the historical part of this day, people around the nation celebrate this day as a time to acknowledge Mexican heritage and party with food, dance, and indigenous rituals. On the fifth of this month, Hartnell College was one of the many that celebrated this holiday. They have games, food, and endless entertainment shows. The following pictures show an evident campus filled with fellowship, culture, and felicity.
