II. SPECIAL ORDERS

A. Community Agreements

Members discussed the adopted Community Agreements.

B. Chancellor's Office Report

Stacey Shears, Vice Chancellor for Student Services, presented proposed regulatory changes to academic renewal, probation, and dismissal policies. The revisions aim to standardize processes across the California Community Colleges, replace punitive terminology with supportive language (e.g., "probation" to "academic notice," "dismissal" to "academic pause"), and expand opportunities for student success. Key changes include allowing multiple petitions for academic renewal without unit limits, extending academic notice based on recent performance, and ensuring students remain eligible for support services. The proposals align with Vision 2030 goals of equity, support, and success, and have no negative impact on CSU or UC transfer processes. Here is a link to her presentation.

B. GenAI Impact on the Student Journey Survey

Sally Montemayor Lenz, EdD, Director of Postsecondary Projects Center for Economic Mobility WestEd, provided a draft student survey on the use and impact of Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI) in the California Community Colleges. The survey, adapted from national and state instruments, is intended to capture diverse student experiences and perspectives. The Chancellor's AI Council has been apprised of the effort, with SSCCC providing direction in shaping and refining the instrument. The draft serves as a foundation for further revision to ensure it becomes a student-centered tool aligned with SSCCC priorities. Dr. Montemayor requested that SSCCC appoint a subgroup of individuals to work with her on finalizing the survey.

Motioned, seconded (VPRA) to create a subgroup to work with representatives from the Chancellor's AI Council and WestEd to finalize a student survey on Gen AI. Members of the subgroup included RAD VI Rivera, LAD VIII, RAD X Hernandez, VPC Maskey, and Vice Chair Ruiz.

C. RP Group Update (Time Certain 11:30 am)

Jake Kevari, President, and Darla Cooper, Executive Director, provided an overview of its mission to advance equity and student success through research, planning, and professional development. The presentation highlighted the role of Institutional Research, Planning, and Effectiveness (IRPE) professionals in supporting decision-making across community
